dilemmas and challenges in their lives — just like each one of us. There are questions of making right choices, making friends, being a good friend, and including others. There are numerous examples of difficult decisions, doing the right thing even in the face of significant odds, facing and naming your fears, and being trustworthy. While none of us actually live the life

Imagine yourself in an invisibility cloak playing hide-and-seek at camp — and the rest of the campers have a Marauder’s Map! In the Herbology class we’ll be looking at plants and their practical uses.

Then have a handful of Bertie Bott’s Every Flavor Beans and watch as the pictures move and talk. One never knows — the campers may even learn to fly! Harry Potter will be at Pilgrim Center this summer!

Each morning, as part of the “regular” camp program, we’ll gather around the fireplace in the common room to talk about “heroes” — people we look up to in our lives. Most of us have several heroes or role models — sports figures, writers, actors, adults and other friends.

We’ll look at the kind of people we consider heroes and how they express and live their faith. Along the way we’ll be challenged to consider how we can be a role model — a hero to others — in how we live our lives.

Harry, Ron, Hermione, and the students and staff at Hogwarts face many everyday of Harry or Hermione, we do have a lot in common with them.

Of course, there will be all kinds of “normal” camp activities like swimming, boating, nature hikes, arts and crafts, and s’mores over an open campfire. Sprinkled throughout the week campers will participate in activities taken straight from the pages of the Harry Potter books — including a game of Quidditch and the Tri Wizard Tournament!

Come; join in the fun of Harry Potter. Explore your own faith and friendships through this unique camp event! Pack your Harry Potter books, your enthusiasm for the Harry Potter stories, and any other Harry Potter stuff you may have and get ready to “take off” for a memorable week at camp!
