Adventure Week

Adventure Week is here! All the camps have been very busy going off site for all sorts of fun adventures. They have returned long enough to play Life Size Mafia, PacMan, and an epic round of glow-in-the-dark Mighty, Mighty Scoop Noodle Challenge. Campers have also been hard at work on their Lip Sync battle songs. Friday night should be fun! Campers slept out under the stars or in the air conditioned chapel on Wednesday night. We’re hoping for some cooler weather soon.

Camp Updates

Mom & Me

Small but mighty, the Mom & Me camp this week had a great time crayfishing, stream walking, and doing an EPIC egg drop. They even took a few minutes to check out Pilgrim Center's new slackline.

Junior Adventure

Junior Adventure campers have completed the Challenge Course, spelunked at Ledgeview Nature Center, and learned some survival skills at MacKenzie Center. They head to Horicon Marsh for a hike on Thursday, and continue sailing and climbing on the rock wall on Friday.

Junior High Adventure

Junior High Adventure Campers worked on the challenge course, went geocaching at Horicon Marsh, and sailed and kayaked on Green Lake. Tomorrow, they will do some indoor rock climbing at UW-Oshkosh.

Senior High Adventure

Senior High Adventure campers have spent the week high in the air. They went to a high ropes course (with a zipline!) on Monday, and went rock climbing on Wednesday. Mystery trippers went to Endeavor (and Montello) on Tuesday, and will head to Fox Lake on Thursday. Sailing has also been a blast.
