Adventure Week

This week is our first of two adventure weeks. The Junior Adventure Camp and Senior High Adventure Camp have been off site for much of the week. We started with a group of Grandparent & Me and Pilgrim Story campers, and ends with Tenderfoot and Mom & Me Adventure. Both week long camps have been rock climbing: the Juniors here at camp on our new boulder wall, and the Senior Highs at Devil’s Lake.

Camp Updates

Grandparent & Me

Grandparent & Me Campers had a great time this week. They went on a stream walk, made paper airplanes, swam in the lake, drew chalk murals, and sang lots and LOTS of camp songs.

Pilgrim Story

Pilgrim Story campers baked cupcakes, made Toy Story night lights, and talked about God & Mickey Mouse. They also participated in a Finding Dory water carnival, where they had to push Dory and Nemo across the swimming area with their noses.

Junior Adventure

Junior Adventure campers kicked off their week at the challenge course. They worked together to fit on this tiny platform. In addition to climbing the boulder wall, campers went hiking in Horicon Marsh and learned about the insects and birds that live there.

Senior High Adventure

Senior High Adventure campers have spent the week high in the air. They went to a high ropes course (with a zipline!) on Monday, and went rock climbing on Wednesday. They even got to belay each other. We were supposed to sail on Tuesday, but since there was no wind, we kayaked to Green Lake and ate ice cream.
