

Covenant of the United Church Camps, Inc. Board

I understand and accept that the Directors of the United Church Camps, Inc. (“UCCI”), acting as the Board of Directors (“Board”) act in a covenantal relationship with each other. Accordingly, to the best of my ability in a prayerful, loving manner, I will;

1. bring my talents and gifts to the Board and use them to strengthen the body in a robust and loving dialogue, by sharing my concerns freely, without blaming or ridiculing, striving always to keep an open mind and heart.
2. make attendance at all meetings, Board or committee, a personal priority and give notice if unable to attend.
3. serve on committees as assigned and report committees' progress and updates to the Board as warranted.
4. hold Board discussions in confidence and support the Board’s decisions, speaking only as the Board has agreed.
5. keep my focus on what is best for UCCI as a whole and not what might be best solely for an individual site or group.
6. be honest in all Board dealings and discussions, voluntarily identifying potential conflicts of interest and never pursuing a personal agenda.
7. annually support UCCI financially at a personally meaningful level.
8. be an ambassador for UCCI to promote the programs and work of this ministry.
9. support and participate in the larger fundraising and development efforts of UCCI.
10. help in finding and training new leaders.
11. actively participate in site events as either a volunteer or participant.
12. hold myself and others accountable to keep this covenant, allowing others with a loving, prayerful heart to inform me if I stray from it.
