

Weddings

at Daycholah Center

Congratulations on your upcoming wedding!

Daycholah Center is sacred ground and has been for generations. It is the perfect place to host your special day. Our property includes a beautiful chapel with soaring windows that face the lake, a welcoming reception hall with that authentic camp vibe, lodging available on-site, and stunning scenery that will create a dreamy backdrop for your day and memories.

We warmly welcome all people into our community. Weddings are open to couples of all faith traditions or no faith tradition.

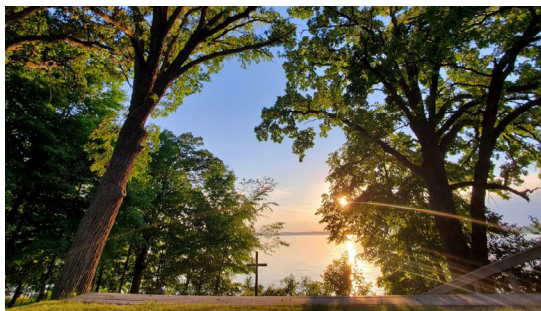

Daycholah Center offers comfortable and attractive spaces that will make you and your guests feel at home. Our team will strive to make your experience with us memorable and meaningful.

A few highlights are listed below; this is a starting point for our conversation. We will be happy to provide tours, discuss your hospitality needs, provide costs, and finalize details for your wedding day. Give us a call or send an email to get started!
