Media Release

I understand that the Camps, and partnering organizations may, on occasion, record my image (including camp photo), voice or likeness. I hereby give permission for the Camps to do so and use these images to promote and resource the outdoor ministry programs without remuneration to me. The usage of these images may include social media, print media, and other forms of marketing materials. Camper names, addresses, or other personal information is not released in any publicity materials without the expressed consent of the adult participant. I agree that my name and contact information can be made available to other campers at the end of camp for purpose of campers maintaining contact.
